

Activity 3.4

Seeking outside help

The Student Press Law Center provides cost-free legal services to student journalists and their faculty advisers. The organization publishes the SPLC Report three times yearly.

Visit the SPLC home page <www.splc.org> and write a concise three-paragraph report on the SPLC or an aspect of student press law that you learned from your visit to the web site. Also from your research, indicate when a student journalist might utilize the SPLC.
